SPECIAL SPEAKERS OF FAITH

Rev. Greg Spencer, Pastor of the Valier United Methodist Church

In the Indiana District of the Western Pennsylvania Annual conference. He is a graduate of Drew Theological School in Madison, New Jersey. Greg has served several United Methodist Churches and comes to us with a gift and passion of connecting people with Jesus Christ. We look forward to Greg being one of our main speakers at the Men of Integrity.

Pastor Kent Haines, Associate Pastor of Assimilation and Evangelism of Cochranon Community Church

Kent has been involved in church work and youth ministry for many years. Before being called into full-time ministry, he was the Diesel Technology instructor at the Crawford county Vo-Tech School in Meadville, Pa. Kent is currently working to complete a Bachelor of Science in Religion degree at Liberty University in Virginia.

Tom Frye, Singer/Songwriter

Most days, when he’s not performing, you’ll find Tom settled in his small family home in rural Indiana, toiling at his vegetable garden or teaching guitar to his kids. In addition to leading music within his local church, he has released four albums to date including 2006’s Hope Is Alive, produced by Michael Aukofer, featuring Mitch McVicker (Rich Mullins) and legendary guitarist Phil Keaggy. The work of harvesting the stories for his latest project, Songs of a Wilderness Traveler, has been Frye’s most arduous and personal yet.
